

The Royal Regiment of Canadian Artillery Regimental Fund

The Captain General Diamond Jubilee Bursary

Eligibility

Qualified immediate family members of all serving Primary Reserve members of The RCA are eligible to apply for a bursary. Qualified family members are spouse, son or daughter, or under the legal guardianship, of Primary Reserve members of The RCA.

Applicants must be enrolled in an institute of higher learning or must be continuing their studies at the aforementioned institute. Such an institute can be a college, technical institute or university. Attendance may be full time, part time or by correspondence, and the program of study must lead to a certificate, diploma or degree. A maximum of two bursaries may be awarded through the life of an individual.

5 bursaries by year

$1000 each bursary

Submission Deadline: 30 September

The application form is available on the web site

For more information visit: <http://canadianartillery.ca/>